THURSDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1768. THE NUMBER 129.

VIRGINIA GAZETTE.

Open to ALL PARTIES, but Influenced by NONE.

PARIS, Auguſt 15.

THE King's troops which were in the town of Baſtia in Corſica, not having a communication with thoſe in St. Florent, although the diſtance between them was only three leagues, Count de Marbœuf ſignified in writing to M. Paoli, the neceſſity of ſecuring ſuch communication; but Paoli, without returning any anſwer, immediately cauſed an attack to be made on the French troops. Upon this proceeding Count de Marbœuf, who was at Baſtia, and Field Marſhal de Grand Maiſon, who was at St. Florent, carried off ſeven redoubts from the Corſicans, ſword in hand, took poſſeſſion of Patrimonia and Barbaggio, and eſtabliſhed the communication. Twelve hundred men were employed in this operation, of whom 20 were killed, and 40 wounded. The Corſicans were reckoned at 4000.

LONDON, Auguſt 6.

This morning Mr. Banks, D. Solano, and Mr. Green, the aſtronomer, ſet out for Deal, to embark on board the Endeavour, Captain Cook for the South-Seas, under the direction of the Royal Society, to obſerve the tranſit of Venus next ſummer, and to make diſcoveries to the ſouth and weſt of Cape Horn.

Auguſt 11. Yeſterday the Virginia merchants gave an elegant entertainment at the George and Vulture tavern, Cornhill, to Lord Botetourt, lately appointed Governor of Virginia, at which were ſeveral Noblemen and other perſons of diſtinction.

Auguſt 12. His Royal Highneſs the Duke of Glouceſter, has ordered a plan of a regular fortified camp to be made in Cranbourn Lodge, mounted with cannon, in order to be inſtructed in the art of gunnery, and every thing neceſſary in the military branch.

Auguſt 13. Yeſterday died, in the 75th year of his age, greatly lamented, Peter Collinſon, Eſq; Fellow of the Royal and Antiquarian Societies. He was ſeized with a retention of urine, from which calamitous ſituation, the moſt ſkilful endeavours were unable to relieve him.

Yeſterday the Honourable and Right Reverend Doctor Frederick Cornwallis, Biſhop of Litchfield and Coventry, kiſſed his Majeſty's hand at St. James's on being appointed Archbiſhop of Canterbury, in the room of the late Dr. Secker.

A morning paper ſays, there are 4000 troops ordered for Boſton, which, it is thought, will ſufficiently intimidate thoſe people to comply with the laws enacted in England; eſpecially as the other colonies ſeem to have deſerted them, the congreſs which they had entered into being broke.

Laſt night the King of Denmark honoured Ranelagh Gardens with his preſence; after which his Majeſty, accompanied by ſeveral of the Nobility, went to the houſe of Sir Thomas Robinſon, where an elegant ſupper was provided.

It is ſaid diſpatches of a very intereſting nature have this week been received at the ſecretary of State's office, from Gibraltar.

According to recent letters from Senegal, the French Governor of Goree is accuſed of making uſe of the moſt villainous practices, to enſnare the Engliſh in a war with divers neighbouring Princes on the African coaſt.

Bets of 100 guineas to 10, were offered a few evenings ſince at a Coffee-houſe at the weſt end of the town, that there will be no war between England and France for three years to come.

A certain perſon of diſtinction (a man of wit) being lately aſked by a friend his opinion of the conſtitution of G— B——n, anſwered, "The conſtitution of E——d, and the conſtitution of your humble ſervant, are much alike, d---'d rotten condition; though I own I have the advantage, for I have the benefit of an able ſurgeon; but, by G-d, your poor country is committed to the care of a parcel of quacks.

Auguſt 16. This evening the Right Hon. the Earl of Hertford will give a grand ſupper and ball, at which his Daniſh Majeſty, his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Glouceſter, ſeveral foreign miniſters, &c. will be preſent.

We hear that great preparations are making at Lord Shelburne's Houſe in Hill-ſtreet, Berkley-ſquare, and at the Right Hon. the Marquis of Rockingham's, in Groſvenor-ſquare, for grand entertainments for his Daniſh Majeſty next week.

There are ſaid to be more French Noblemen now in London, than ever there were Engliſh at any one time in Paris.

We are told that Paoli, General of the Corſicans, has ſent over very advantageous offers to any Engliſh ſea officer, who ſhall engage in his ſervice.

They write from Breſt, that a detachment of 300 military cadets had juſt embarked on board a frigate of war, to ſerve in the French troops in Corſica.

We hear that every thing was quiet at Senegal when the laſt advices were received from thence, notwithſtanding ſome late reports to the contrary.

This day a board of trade was held at the Plantation Office, Whitehall, when ſundry petitions, &c. from the Weſt-Indies and North-America, were laid before the Commiſſioners by their reſpective colony Agents.

Letters from Leghorn adviſe, that, by their accounts from Corſica, 2550 of the French troops in that iſland have already deſerted, and that in a ſingle week the number amounted to 317, amongſt whom were two ſerjeants, and five corporals. Beſides this, they ſay that great ſickneſs prevails amongſt them, and eſpecially in the neighbourhood of San Fiorenzo, where ſeveral are daily carried off.

They write from Berlin, that a regiment of Pruſſian Huſſars has entered Lithuania, and taken poſt in the ſtaroſty belonging to the houſe of Brandenburg; and that ſome corps of light cavalry are alſo poſted on the frontiers of Siléſia and Ducal Pruſſia, in order to prevent the troubles from being communicated thereto.

A letter from the lower Elbe ſays, "moſt of all the German papers inform us that the Ruſſians have been obliged, for the ſecond time, to retire from before Cracow; adding, that the King of Poland has reſolved to leave Warſaw, and that having loſt a part of his revenues, his Majeſty was obliged to ſtop all the penſions which he had granted.

On the other hand a detachment from the Confederates of Cracow has entered ſome villages in the principality of Oeſſe in Siléſia, and pillaged them, ſuppoſing them to belong to the reformed.

Auguſt 17. Yeſterday being the birth-day of his Royal Highneſs Prince Frederick, Biſhop of Oſnaburg, who enters into the 6th year of his age, their Majeſties received the compliments of the nobility, foreign Miniſters, and gentry on the occaſion.

We are credibly informed, that orders are given for all the officers who are abſent on furloughs, whoſe regiments are in America, to embark forthwith to join their reſpective regiments.

Auguſt 18. On Tueſday ſome diſpatches were forwarded to Commodore Palliſer on the Newfoundland ſtation.

Yeſterday morning the King of Denmark went in a private manner to Sir Thomas Robinſon's at Cheſſea, and after viewing Ranelagh, proceeded to the tower; where ſeeing the armouries and the mint, he went through Cannon ſtreet to St. Paul's cathedral, and having ſeen the lower part, went up ſtairs to the whiſpering gallery, thence to the ſtone and golden galleries, at the laſt of which, with reſpect to the proſpect around him, he expreſſed the greateſt ſurprize and admiration.

It is ſaid that ſeveral diſpatches of great importance have been lately received from Corſica.

We are told that ſeveral large pieces of ordnance, and other warlike ſtores, are getting ready, and are to be ſhipped off for Corſica with all convenient ſpeed.

It is ſaid that ſeveral Gentlemen, remarkable for their elegance of dreſs, intend ſhortly to appear in hats cocked in an entire new faſhion, which, in compliment to his Daniſh Majeſty, is to be called the King of Denmark's cock.

Auguſt 20. His Daniſh Majeſty, we hear, has already, with the utmoſt princely liberality, not only given large ſums to various charities, but declared an intention to ſhew ſome additional marks of munificence, before his departure from this kingdom.

It is ſaid that his Daniſh Majeſty, during his continuance at York races, for which he ſets out this day, will reſide with the Marquis of Rockingham.

It is ſaid the expences of a late magnificent entertainment at the weſt end of the town, amounted to upwards of two thouſand guineas.

Great preparations are ſaid to be making at Alnwick caſtle, in Northumberland, the ſeat of the Duke of Northumberland, in expectation of a viſit from the King of Denmark.

Wedneſday night landed at Dover from Calais, the Prince and Princeſs of Poland; alſo the Empreſs of Ruſſia's Ambaſſador.

It is ſaid that Adminiſtration intend to let a certain Gentleman take his ſeat in a certain Aſſembly, without interruption, as experience convinces them that oppoſition has proved no inconſiderable ſource of popularity.

The French, though excluded from the Eaſt Indies, carry on ſo conſiderable a traffic, through the hands of our company's ſervants, as merits the attention of government.

Tueſday three citizens Ladies had the curioſity to go to ſee his Daniſh Majeſty dine in public, one of whom was ſo charmed with his perſon, that ſhe could not be prevailed upon to leave the room until his Majeſty withdrew, and declared ſhe would always have the ſame regale as long as he dined in public.

BOSTON, October 3.

The following was unanimouſly agreed upon, as the reſult of the conference and conſultation of the committees choſen by a number of towns and diſtricts, viz. ninety ſix towns, and eight diſtricts, convened at Boſton the 22d day of September, 1768.

THE inhabitants of a number of towns in his Majeſty's province of Maſſachuſett's Bay, being greatly alarmed at the preſent aſpect of our public affairs, and deeply diſtreſſed in their minds, upon authentic advice, that the humble and dutiful petition of their repreſentatives to our moſt gracious Sovereign, for the redreſs of their grievances, has not reached the Royal preſence: At a time when they are threatened with the poſting of regular troops among them, while they are in an unuſual manner deprived of the benefit of a general aſſembly, the grand council of the province. And being deſirous, to the utmoſt of their ability, to promote peace, good order, and due ſubmiſſion among their fellow ſubjects in the province, have, in their ſeveral town meetings, legally aſſembled, choſen us to meet together in convention, in order to conſult and adviſe for that purpoſe; and alſo for the legal, regular and prudential methods of obtaining the redreſs of our grievances.

The ſaid committee having met for the purpoſes aforeſaid, and after conference and conſultation on the premiſes, thought it adviſable to prefer a dutiful petition to his Excellency Governor Bernard, his Majeſty's repreſentative in this province, therein ſetting forth, and explaining to his Excellency, the nature and deſign of their meeting, and ſupplicating him to convene a general aſſembly of the repreſentative body of the people. But his Excellency having conſidered their thus meeting as unlawful, refuſed to receive the petition; and ſent them a meſſage, admoniſhing them to ſeparate themſelves; and alſo afterward he refuſed to receive an anſwer, which the ſaid committee thought neceſſary to ſend to his Excellency, in conſequence of his meſſage and admonition to them; the committee therefore conſidering that the peaceable and good intention of their convening, might poſſibly be miſunderſtood, thought it neceſſary that their proceedings ſhould be made known to the world, by inſerting the ſame in the public prints, that ſo every ſuſpicion of any illegal deſign or behaviour might be removed.

And the ſaid committees conſidering themſelves only as ſo many private fellow ſubjects, convened from divers towns in this province, at the requeſt of their inhabitants, have made known to each other the loyal and dutiful diſpoſition of the ſame; and their deſire that no irregular ſteps ſhould be taken by the people, but that all conſtitutional and prudential methods ſhould be cloſely attended to, for the redreſs of their grievances; and the ſaid committee, in purſuance of the pacific intention of their meeting, have conſidered that the gracious attention of his moſt ſacred Majeſty to the cauſe and grounds of our complaints, is the only regular ſource of relief from our preſent diſtreſſes; and that the houſe of repreſentatives in February laſt did, in their faithful care and concern for the intereſt and welfare of this province, prefer ſuch a petition to his ſacred Majeſty as by them was thought beſt adapted to obtain relief; and at the ſame time did write letters to divers noble Lords, and others, to intreat their attention to our public difficulties: Which petition to his Majeſty, we are in hopes has before this time reached the Royal preſence, and will e'er long have the deſired effect. And as we cannot but ſtill entertain the hopes that his Excellency, our Governor, will ſoon think fit to call a houſe of repreſentatives, who may, if they ſee occaſion therefore, prefer further petitions to his Majeſty for our redreſs, we are therefore humbly of opinion, and flatter ourſelves, it will not be taken amiſs if we declare, and which we are aſſured is the ſentiment of the ſeveral towns to which we belong, that though the preſent appearance of our public affairs is alarming and diſtreſſing, yet that the common cauſe of obtaining the redreſs of the heavy grievances under which we labour, will be beſt ſerved by a firm adherence to the principles of the conſtitution, and a cloſe attention to the peace and good order of ſociety. And though we are ſatisfied, from the knowledge we have of the loyalty and attachment of the inhabitants of this province to the perſon and government of our moſt gracious Sovereign, that any tumults and diſorders that may have happened, have not ariſen from the leaſt diſaffection to the government as by law eſtabliſhed, or the want of loyalty to our King on the Britiſh throne, but merely from a preſſing anxiety of mind on the account of heavy and increaſing grievances—— which grievances were very clearly ſet forth by the houſe of repreſentatives of this province in February laſt, in the aforeſaid petition and letters, wherein they expreſs their deepeſt concern, that the parliament has thought proper to paſs divers acts impoſing taxes on his Majeſty's ſubjects in America, with the ſole and expreſs purpoſe of raiſing a revenue; and they add, "that if theſe acts of parliament ſhould remain in force, and his Majeſty's commons in Great-Britain ſhall continue to exerciſe the power of granting the property of their fellow ſubjects in this province, his Majeſty's people here muſt then regret their unhappy fate, in having only the name left of free ſubjects."--And in their letter to their agent they ſay, that "the coloniſts cannot be conceived to have any property, if their money may be granted away by others without their conſent, and that this is moſt certainly the preſent caſe." And ſpeaking of a ſtanding army, they "appeal to the tranſactions of the parliament to ſhew the ſentiments of the nation of the loyalty of the people of the province, and juſtly affirm, that their good diſpoſition renders a ſtanding army needleſs: They further declare, that as Engliſhmen they have an averſion to an unneceſſary ſtanding army, which they look upon as dangerous to their civil liberty. And further, that the time may come when an united body of penſioners and ſoldiers may ruin the liberties of America."

Yet conſidering the invaluable bleſſings and happy conſequences of peace and good order, and the great advantages reſulting therefrom, for producing convincing arguments, and placing truth in the moſt conſpicuous point of view; and alſo conſidering the horrible nature and dreadful conſequences of tumult and diſorder, we think it our duty, as friends to our common cauſe, as embarked in the ſame bottom of provincial happineſs, to give our free and ſincere advice, not in an authoritative, but meerly a friendly manner, that we ſhould all of us compoſe our minds, and avoid any undue expreſſions of reſentment, and each one of us prevent, ſo much as in him lies, all tumults and diſorders into which our preſent calamities may betray us; and to attend, with all due patience, and a regard to good order, the reſult of his Majeſty's wiſdom and clemency, from whence we reaſonably expect to receive our much deſired relief. And it is our firm reſolution, in our ſeveral ſtations, as by our allegiance required, and by our loyalty inclined, at all times, to yield every poſſible aſſiſtance to the civil magiſtrate, in the ſuppreſſion of riots and tumults, and in preſerving the peace; being humbly of opinion, that the poſſe comitatus, when legally called in aid of the civil power will ever be ſufficient to reſtrain all orders of men within the bounds of the law, and the limits of the conſtitution. We, from the bottom of our hearts, not only diſclaim and deteſt all pretences of "uſurping" any of the "rights of ſovereignty," but alſo of arrogating to ourſelves any the leaſt authority whatever. We clearly hold, and, whenever lawfully called thereunto, will, at the utmoſt hazard of our lives and fortunes, maintain that the "ſovereignty" of his moſt ſacred Majeſty King GEORGE the third, is already "entire" in all parts of the widely extended, and ſtill happily ſpreading Britiſh empire: And may GOD forbid that we ſhould ever once be left to think or wiſh, much leſs to act any thing in "oppugnation" of the ſame. "Ignorance of the law," neither in a court temporal or ſpiritual, is a proper "plea" or "excuſe." We would appear not as attornies, proctors or pettyfoggers, but as plain honeſt men, humbly conſulting peace and order, and for the beſt temporal felicity of our country, and of poſterity. We would with, as far as is in our power, ever to promote and cultivate that harmony and union between Great-Britain and her colonies, on which the happineſs of both ſo much depend. We think ourſelves happy in being connected with the parent ſtate, in that ſubordination, which forms the happieſt bond of union between the colonies themſelves. We have been taught, that it is the duty of all men, inceſſantly to implore the throne of heavenly grace; and have but lately heard, there are thoſe who deem it criminal for aggrieved fellow ſubjects to join in humble, dutiful, and loyal ſupplications to their Monarch. While the people wiſely obſerve the medium between an abject ſubmiſſion, and a ſlaviſh ſtupidity, under grievous oppreſſion on the one hand, and irrational attempts to obtain redreſs on the other, and ſteadily perſevere in orderly and conſtitutional applications, for the recovering the exerciſe of their juſt rights and liberties, they may promiſe themſelves ſucceſs. And while they ſtedfaſtly maintain thoſe invaluable bleſſings which are derived to them from GOD and nature, and the happy conſtitution of the government under which we live, they may ſafely rely on the influence and direction of him who ruleth according to his pleaſure, with unerring wiſdom, and irreſiſtible influence, in the hearts of the children of men; under whoſe favour no grievance can be durable, and without which no enjoyment can be truly valuable.

Wedneſday morning arrived here from Halifax, the Launceſton of 40 guns, the Mermaid of 28, Glaſgow of 20, Beaver of 14, Senegal of 14, and Bonetta of 10, and two armed ſchooners, together with ſeveral tranſports, having on board the 14th regiment, under the command of Lieut. Col. Dairymple, and the 29th regiment, under Lieut. Col. Carr; alſo the grenadiers, and another company of the 59th regiment, with a detachment of the royal regiment of artillery; in all about 1000 men.

WILLIAMSBURG, October 27.

On Tueſday laſt arrived at Hampton, in his Majeſty's ſhip the Rippon, of 60 guns, commanded by ——— Thompſon, Eſq; his Excellency the Right Honourable NORBORNE, Baron de BOTETOURT, his Majeſty's Lieutenant and Governor General of the colony and dominion of Virginia, and Vice Admiral of the ſame. Yeſterday evening his Excellency arrived in this city, and was received at the Capitol gate by his Majeſty's Council, the Speaker of the Houſe of Burgeſſes, the Attorney General, the Treaſurer, the Gentlemen of the Bar, &c. and was immediately conducted to the Council Chamber, where his commiſſions being read, he qualified for his adminiſtration by taking the uſual oaths. His Excellency, with the Honourable Council, and many other Gentlemen, ſpent the evening at the Raleigh. The city was handſomely illuminated, and every demonſtration of joy ſhewn by all ranks, that ſuch ſhort notice would admit of.

The humble ADDRESS of the COUNCIL.

MY LORD,

WE his Majeſty's dutiful and faithful ſubjects, the Council of Virginia, beg leave to congratulate your Excellency upon your appointment to this government, and to expreſs our joy at the proſperous event of your ſafe arrival in the colony.

Permit us at the ſame time to acknowledge the wiſdom and goodneſs of our moſt gracious Sovereign; which have determined him to make choice of a Nobleman of your Excellency's many eminent virtues and diſtinguiſhed abilities to rule over, and to reſide among us; and, as an earneſt of the ſincerity of theſe profeſſions, we deſire to aſſure your Excellency, that, as it is our duty, it ſhall be alſo our ſtudy, within our department, to render your adminiſtration acceptable to the beſt of Kings; honourable, agreeable, and eaſy to yourſelf, and productive of the happineſs and proſperity of his Majeſty's loyal people of this dominion: Of this diſpoſition we ſhall be ſolicitous to give proofs on all occaſions, in full confidence, that, while we keep in view theſe important objects, and ſteadily purſue them, we may humbly hope for ſome ſmall ſhare of the Royal favour and good opinion; the higheſt mark of honour to which our endeavours ſhall be invariably directed.

GENTLEMEN of the COUNCIL,

YOUR expreſſions of loyalty and duty to our gracious Sovereign give me the greateſt ſatisfaction, and I can with truth aver, that every thing I have ſeen and heard ſince I landed in Virginia, has been pleaſing in the higheſt degree. Your ſtile of acceptance of me for your Governor is moſt flattering. From myſelf I have nothing to offer but good intentions, but on this you may depend, that if I have the good fortune to anſwer the purpoſes of my Royal maſter, you will be happy indeed.

On Friday the 14th inſtant died at his houſe in Stafford county, JOHN MERCER, Eſq; who had practiſed the law with great ſucceſs in this colony upwards of forty years. He was a Gentleman of great natural abilities, improved by an extenſive knowledge, not only in his profeſſion, but in ſeveral other branches of polite literature. He was of a humane, generous and chearful diſpoſition; a facetious companion, a warm friend, an affectionate huſband, a tender parent, and an indulgent maſter.

MARTIN BINION.

VIRGINIA, ſc.

A PROCLAMATION

Continuing OFFICERS.

WHEREAS his moſt ſacred Majeſty hath, by his Royal commiſſion, bearing date at Weſtminſter, the 12th day of Auguſt, in the 8th year of his reign, conſtituted and appointed me his Lieutenant and Governor General of this his Colony and Dominion, thereby giving and granting unto me full power to exerciſe all and all manner of juriſdictions, powers and authorities to the ſame belonging: Now to the end that the peace of this his Majeſty's Dominion may be the better ſecured, and all proceedings at law continued, and that the ordinary courſe of juſtice may not be interrupted, I have thought fit, by and with the advice of his Majeſty's Council of this Colony, in his Majeſty's name to publiſh and declare, that all Magiſtrates and Officers, both civil and military, do continue and remain in all and ſingular their powers, authorities and juriſdictions, until further order be taken therein; hereby requiring them to proceed in the execution of their ſeveral duties; and all his Majeſty's ſubjects within this Colony are to be aiding and aſſiſting to them therein, and to yield all due obedience to this Proclamation.

Given under my hand and the ſeal of the Colony at Williamſburg, this 26th day of October, 1768, in the 9th year of his Majeſty's Reign.

BOTETOURT.

GOD ſave the KING.

VIRGINIA, ſc.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY,

A PROCLAMATION

Diſſolving the GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

WHERAS the General Aſſembly ſtands prorogued to the laſt Thurſday in January next; and whereas I have thought fit, for divers conſiderations, regarding his Majeſty's ſervice, to diſſolve the ſaid Aſſembly; I have therefore, by and with the advice and conſent of his Majeſty's Council, iſſued this Proclamation, declaring the ſaid Aſſembly to be diſſolved, and it is hereby accordingly diſſolved, of which all his Majeſty's ſubjects within this colony are required to take notice. And whereas I am deſirous upon all occaſions to have the advice of a General Aſſembly, for his Majeſty's ſervice, and the good and proſperity of his ſubjects; I do hereby further publiſh and declare, that I intend ſhortly to iſſue writs for the election of Burgeſſes to ſerve in the new Aſſembly, at ſuch time as by the advice of his Majeſty's Council ſhall be judged moſt fit and convenient.

Given under my hand, and the ſeal of the Colony, in Williamſburg, this 27th day of October, 1768, in the 9th year of his Majeſty's reign.

BOTETOURT.

GOD ſave the KING.

WILLIAMSBURG, October 13, 1768.

MEDITERRANEAN PASSES may be had at his HONOUR the PRESIDENT's OFFICE.

WILLIAMSBURG, 27th Sept. 1768.

ONCE MORE, and for the LAST TIME, I take this method of calling upon all thoſe, who are indebted to the PUBLIC TREASURY, either for arrears of taxes, tobacco depoſitums, or upon any other account whatever, for their ſeveral balances. If they are not paid very ſpeedily, the duty of my office, ſtrongly enforced by an expreſs order of the Houſe of Burgeſſes, will oblige me rigorouſly to purſue the meaſures preſcribed by law, without reſpect to perſons.

I hope the Inſpectors will be more punctual, than uſual, in ſettling their accounts by the time appointed, otherwiſe it will not be in my power to comply with the purpoſes of the fund ariſing from the inſpection of tobacco. The ſeveral officers indebted for recruiting money are deſired to ſettle their accounts immediately, or their bonds will be put in ſuit.

As it is impoſſible for me to ſupport the credit of the TREASURY in the manner I could wiſh, and ought to do, unleſs the ſeveral duties appropriated to the diſcharge of the public debts are more regularly paid and accounted for than they have been for ſome time paſt, I muſt alſo recommend this matter to the ſerious attention of all concerned in thoſe branches of the revenue, either as importers or collectors.

RO: C. NICHOLAS,
Treaſurer.

Williamſburg, October 18, 1768.

THE ſubſcribers having purchaſed the ſhop of drugs, medicines, &c. of Mr. William Biers, hope for the continuance of the favours of his cuſtomers, as they may depend on being ſupplied on the ſame reaſonable terms, as when kept by him, by

Their very humble Servants,
ANDREW ANDERSON, and Co.

TAKEN up in Amelia county, near the head of Weſt Creek, a black roan mare, about 5 or 6 years old, 4 feet 2 or 3 inches high, has four white feet, a blazed face, and one glaſs eye; branded on the near ſhoulder and buttock with a ſtirrup iron, to that on the ſhoulder is joined a C inverted. Poſted, and appraiſed to 4l.

JAMES FARLEY.

At the particular requeſt of ſeveral Ladies and Gentlemen, on Wedneſday the 16th of November next, will be performed in King-William court-houſe,

A CONCERT of INSTRUMENTAL MUSICK, by Gentlemen of note, for their own amuſement. After the concert will be a BALL, if agreeable to the company.

TICKETS to be had, at FIVE SHILLINGS each, of Mr. Holt Richeſon, at King-William court-houſe; of Mr. Claiborne, at the ferry; at Mr. Pearſon's ſtore, in Newcaſtle; at Fleet's and Fraſer's ferries; and at the New Printing-Office, in Williamſburg.

NORFOLK, October 23, 1768.

MR. William Bradly having made over his eſtate in truſt to the ſubſcribers, for the benefit of all his juſt creditors, we propoſe ſelling at public vendue, on the 28th of November, a houſe and lot in Church-ſtreet, joining to Mr. Max. Calvert's land, to the ſouth, and the land of John Cann, deceaſed, to the north, and fronts on the alley that leads to Dr. Campbell's. Alſo a lot, wharf and ware-houſes, in Portſmouth, joining to the lands of Mr. Andrew Sprowle, to the north, and Mr. Humphrey Roberts, to the ſouth, fronting the South Branch, where with any little expence, the wharf and ſtores may be made as commodious as any in Portſmouth, and where ſhips of 2 or 300 tons may load, unload, and heave down. There is no other lot of this kind for ſale in Portſmouth. As Mr. Bradly has loſt a conſiderable ſum of money, by the failure of Mr. Cary in London, and he being determined to do juſtice to all his creditors, that the moſt can be made of his eſtate, it is requeſted that the creditors may not bring uſeleſs ſuits to the diſtreſſing the eſtate; but that they will give a reaſonable time for the ſale of his eſtate, that the moſt may be made of it. For this purpoſe two of the truſtees will meet with the creditors at Williamſburg, the 2d day of November next, at the houſe of Mr. Anthony Hay; and thoſe who are not able to attend at Williamſburg or Norfolk, at that time, will be pleaſed to ſend an account of their claims to us here, allowing a reaſonable time for converting the eſtate into money. We think the indulgence of 6, 9, and 12 months, will be of great advantage to both parties.

NORFOLK, October 14, 1768.

THE ſubſcriber hereof apprehending that his preſence is required in Barbados, to ſee after and ſettle his own affairs, he therefore takes this method to inform his creditors, that ſuch a ſtep is abſolutely neceſſary, not only for his own, but for the advantage of them, as a means whereby he will the ſooner be able to render ſatisfaction to them. From many diſappointments he has met with (which he did not expect) he has been made very uneaſy, by not having effects ſhipt him as he expected. He returns his creditors hearty thanks for not putting themſelves to the trouble, and him to the expence of ſuits being commenced againſt him for the ſeveral balances due; and prays a little farther indulgence, till he gets home and collects what is there due to him. He deſires all thoſe who have any demands againſt him, to render their accounts, the balances of which he will give bond for, payable in Barbados; and as he has ſet forth his reaſons for leaving the colony, hopes no perſon will be cruel enough to ſtop him, as it would not at all tend to their advantage, but greatly to his diſadvantage, which would prove but little or no ſatisfaction to thoſe to whom balances are due. He hopes the reaſons aſſigned may have their due weight with thoſe concerned, which will very much oblige their

RICHARD CHAMBERLAYNE.

RUN away from the ſubſcribers, near Jennings's Gap, two Engliſh ſervant Men, one named John Yorke; he is about 22 years of age, about 5 feet five inches high, and has ſhort black curled hair, and a mole on his left eyebrow, of a dark complexion, had on an old wool hat, a grey coloured jacket with blue and white mixed ſleeves, another ditto, mixed blue and white, half wore ſtockings, old leather breeches, old pumps, a coarſe ſhirt, and an aſh-coloured great coat.

The other is named Robert Reed, he is about 40 years of age, and about 5 feet 5 inches high, and has ſhort fair hair, a pleaſant countenance, and fair complexion. He had on a coarſe ſhirt, old hat, old ribbed ſtockings, half worn, leather breeches, a blue German ſerge jacket, and old ſhoes with clouts, on his feet. Whoever takes up the ſaid run aways, and ſecures them ſo as the owners may get them, ſhall have Forty Shillings reward, and reaſonable charges paid by us,

DAVID HOGSHEAD.

Charles City, Sept. 23, 1768.

RUN away from the ſubſcriber, the 11th inſt. a Negro fellow named Charles, about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, of a yellow complexion, ſpeaks ſlow and ſoft, and is about twenty-ſeven years of age, an artful cunning fellow; had with him when he went away ſundry cloaths, but of what ſort more than common I cannot remember, only a bearſkin great coat, and a large pair of ſilver ſhoe buckles. He is a ſawyer and ſhoemaker by trade, and carried with him his ſhoemaker's tools. The ſaid fellow reads tolerably well, and is a great preacher, from which I imagine he will endeavour to paſs for a freeman. He is outlawed, and I hereby offer a reward of fifteen pounds for his head, ſevered from his body, or ten pounds if brought alive. He ran away on the 16th of February 1765, and was abſent near two years.

3 CHARLES FLOYD.

Frederick county, October 10, 1768.

I CLAIM title to four hundred acres of land, purchaſed by the late Col. John Bayliſs, of the county of Prince William, deceaſed, of Mr. John Graham, of the ſame county, ſituate in the county of Frederick and adjoining to the lands of Col. Richard Blackburn, deceaſed; and I hereby forewarn all perſons, that I have purchaſed the ſame of Mrs. Bayliſs, of the county of Prince William, Executrix of the ſaid John Bayliſs, and ſhall aſſert my pretenſions.

EDW^d. HACK MOSELEY.

WESTOVER, Sept. 20, 1768.

THIS is to give notice to all adventurers in my LOTTERY, that it will certainly be drawn on the 2d day of November next, according to my former advertiſement. The lots are all laid off as near as poſſible to the ſcheme, and I do aſſure all concerned that moſt of the lots are undervalued. As a farther encouragement, I have thrown in the houſes at Belvidere, with ſome other advantages. I beg the favour of thoſe Gentlemen, who were ſo good as to take the trouble of tickets to diſpoſe of for me, to ſend thoſe that remain on hand to Williamſburg, by the 25th of October. I likewiſe muſt intreat all perſons, who have bought tickets, to ſend their money to town by the day of drawing.

W. BYRD.

YORK, Sept. 22, 1768.

To be SOLD, on Monday the 31*ſt day of* October next, before Mr. Hay's door, in Williamſburg, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon,

ABOUT FIFTY CHOICE

SLAVES,

MEN, WOMEN, BOYS, and GIRLS, belonging to Armiſtead Lightfoot, taken in execution to ſatisfy ſeveral judgments of York court.

WILLIAM MITCHELL, S. Sheriff.

I HOPE all thoſe indebted to me, and particularly ſuch as I have been obliged to pay money for, will take proper notice of the above advertiſement.

A. LIGHTFOOT.

SHOCKOE, Sept. 16, 1768.

We have juſt imported in the John & Mary, and have for ſale at a low advance, for ready money, or ſhort credit,

STORRS & ELLIS.

RAN away laſt April, from one of the ſubſcriber's quarters in Loudoun, (where he had been a ſhort time ſawing) a Mulatto ſlave belonging to Samuel Selden, jun. named Peter Deadfoot, though it is ſuppoſed he has changed his name, as he the day before attempted to paſs for a freeman, and had got as far as Noland's ferry, on his way to Philadelphia, by a forged paſs, in which he was called William Swann. He is a tall, ſlim, clean limbed, active, genteel, handſome fellow, with broad ſhoulders; about 22 years of age, a dark Mulatto, with a noſe rather flat than otherwiſe, very ſenſible, and ſmooth tongued; but is apt to ſpeak quick, ſwear, and wiſh dreadful curſes upon himſelf, in defence of his innocence, if taxed with a fault, even when guilty; which may be eaſily diſcovered, by any perſon's taxing him with being run away. He is an indifferent ſhoemaker, a good butcher, ploughman, and carter; an excellent ſawyer, and waterman, underſtands breaking oxen well, and is one of the beſt ſcythemen, either with or without a cradle, in America; in ſhort, he is ſo ingenious a fellow, that he can turn his hand to any thing; he has a great ſhare of pride, though he is very obliging, is extremely fond of dreſs; and though his holiday clothes were taken from him, when he firſt attempted to get off, yet, as he has probably paſſed for a freeman, I make no doubt he has ſupplied himſelf with others, as ſuch a fellow would readily get employment; it has been reported that he was ſeen on board a veſſel in York river, near York town; but for my own part, I ſuſpect that he is either in Prince William county, Charles county in Maryland (in both which places he has relations) or in the neighbourhood of Wincheſter. Whoever apprehends the ſaid ſlave, and conveys him to me in Stafford county, ſhall receive, if taken within ten miles of my houſe, Five Pounds; if above fifty miles, Ten Pounds; and if above one hundred miles, Twenty Pounds reward, beſides what the law allows.

THOMSON MASON.

Richmond county, July 14.

RUN away about the 20th of May laſt, an Eaſt-India Indian, named Thomas Greenwich; he is a well made fellow, about 5 feet 4 inches high, wears his own hair, which is long and black, has a thin viſage, a very ſly look, and a remarkable ſet of fine white teeth. A reward of 40*s.* will be paid the perſon who delivers him to the ſubſcriber, beſides what the law allows. WILLIAM COLSTON.

RUN away from the ſubſcriber, in Cumberland county, the 3d of this inſtant October, a tall ſlim Mulatto man, named Tom Armſtrong; he has had a bad ſcald head, and is pitted with the ſmallpox. I expect he will endeavour to get aboard of ſome veſſel, and hereby forewarn all maſters of veſſels from being concerned with him; if they do, they need not expect any indulgence. I promiſe a generous reward, beſides what the law allows, to any perſon who will take him up, and deliver him to me.

JOHN JUDE.

October 2, 1768.

STRAYED or ſtolen from King William court-houſe, about ſix weeks ago, a bay horſe, about 14 hands high, with a black mane and tail, branded on the nigh ſhoulder I: on the nigh buttock W: paces, trots, and gallops, and draws very well in a chair. Whoever will bring the ſaid horſe to Mr. Holt Richeſon, or ſecure him ſo as I may get him again, ſhall receive TWENTY SHILLINGS reward.

ALEX: GLASS STRACHAN.

TO BE SOLD,

The following tracts of LAND, viz.

A TRACT of LAND containing 600 acres or thereabouts, lying in St. Paul's pariſh, Stafford county, on the river Potowmack; thirty acres of ſaid land is meadow ground, equal in quality to any in this colony, and lately put in the beſt order for graſs; likewiſe a quantity of ſalt marſh; the other part of the land produces great crops of corn and tobacco, and lies very convenient to church and ſeveral good mills; there is on the premiſes a good new dwelling-houſe with ſix rooms below, and three above, all with fire places, with every convenient out houſe; ſituated on a hill, that opens a moſt agreeable proſpect for ſome miles up and down the river. Likewiſe a valuable tract of land in Cople pariſh, Weſtmoreland county, containing four hundred and twenty acres, as good as any land in the Northern Neck, lying perfectly level through the whole, with immenſity of timber, fit for building ſhips, or otherwiſe, and convenient to Potowmack river, where a quantity of fine fiſh and oyſters may be had with little trouble. It lies within a few miles of two churches, and ſeveral good mills. The payment ſhall be made eaſy to the purchaſer, by Prizes not demanded within ſix months after their publication in the Virginia Gazette, will be deemed as generouſly given to promote the above purpoſes, and will then be applied accordingly by the managers aforenamed.

COMMITTED from JAMES CITY priſon to the public gaol in Williamſburg, a Mundingo Negro man ſlave, named PETER; he is about 5 feet 5 or 6 inches high, about 35 years old, has on an oznabrig ſhirt, cotton waiſtcoat, and Virginia cotton breeches; and has ſeveral ſcars on his forehead and breaſt, occaſioned by the yaws. He ſays he belongs to JAMES TAYLOR, of South-Carolina, formerly belonged to Thomas Kemp of Glouceſter, and ſold to Robert Crawley, who ſold him to the ſaid JAMES TAYLOR. The owner may have him, on proving his property, and paying charges, as the law directs.

EDWARD WESTMORE, K. P. G.

RUN away from Capt. JOHN WILLIAMS, of Northumberland county, the latter end of May laſt, a Negro man named Curry Tuxent, about 50 years of age, by trade a carpenter and cooper, he is a tall ſlim black fellow, about 6 feet high, has loſt moſt of his upper fore teeth, talks very faſt and ſmooth; he carried with him carpenters and coopers tools, by which he will expect to paſs as a freeman. It is thought he is gone towards JAMES river, after a parcel of Negroes lately purchaſed by Sir Peyton Skipwith from the eſtate of Robert Briſtow, Eſq; Whoever ſecures the ſaid fellow, ſo that I get him again, ſhall have five pounds reward, paid by RICHARD EDWARDS.

RUN away from the ſubſcriber in Goochland county, laſt July, a tall, ſlim, black, Virginia born fellow, named DICK, about 35 years of age, who has a ſurly look, and remarkable red eyes; had the uſual cloathing of labouring Negroes, and is ſuppoſed to be harboured in Middleſex county, where he formerly lived. He is very ſenſible, and will endeavour to impoſe on the public, and paſs for a freeman. I have lately been informed that he intends to leave the colony, therefore I muſt intreat of all commanders of veſſels, and others, if ſuch a perſon ſhould offer his ſervice, they will have him ſecured, and delivered to the ſubſcriber, who will pay five pounds reward.

LEONARD PRICE.

King's creek, York county, Sept. 14, 1768.

RUN away from the ſubſcriber, about three months ago, a tall black Negro fellow named GABY, about 40 years of age, round ſhoulder'd, bends in one of his knees (in which I have forgot) is very ſubject to ſore legs, has a very long foot; and had on when he left me, the uſual winter cloathing of corn field Negroes; he has a wife at Mr. Robert Nicholſon's in Williamſburg, where (in all probability) he may be ſecreted by her. He is outlawed, and a reward of TEN POUNDS will be given for his head, or Twenty Shillings if ſafely delivered to JAMES BURWELL.

Feb. 10, 1768.

To be SOLD at private SALE,

SIX THOUSAND FIVE HUNDRED ACRES of LAND in Charles City, pleaſantly ſituate on James river; 4 acres of land, with a water griſt mill, on Mayſer's creek, in the ſame county; and two thouſand acres of land in Halifax county; they will be ſold altogether, or divided into lots, as may beſt ſuit the purchaſers. Theſe lands were the eſtate of Mr. William Kennon, and are conveyed to us (with others his truſtees) for the benefit of his creditors. As a ſale of theſe lands has been before advertiſed, but not effected; it may not be improper, to aſſure the public, that an abſolute diſpoſal of them is now intended; and that we ſhall be ready at all times to receive propoſals for the whole, or any part thereof. Mr. John Chriſtian (who lives thereon) will ſhew the land in Charles City.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1768. NUMBER 129.

SUPPLEMENT to the VIRGINIA GAZETTE.

CHARLES-TOWN (S. CAROLINA) Sep. 12.

THE people called regulators have lately severely chastised one Lum, who is come to town; but we have not yet learnt the real cause of this severity to him. A letter from Pine-Tree-Hill (now called Camden) dated the 6th instant, contains the following intelligence, viz. "The regulators have fixed upon the 5th of next month to have a meeting here, to draw up their grievances, in order to be laid before the new assembly, 2500 or 3000 of them, from St. Mark's and St. David's parishes, are to rendezvous, on the 10th, at Eutaw, and thence proceed to Charles-Town, to pursue the proper measures for redress. The regulators from the Congaree, Broad and Saludy rivers, are not to proceed to town, unless sent for by their brethren; but 1500 of them are to hold themselves in readiness, in case they should be wanted. They do not intend the least injury to any person in town, desiring only provisions and quarters till their complaints shall be heard. The confusion in North-Carolina is still greater than in this province, where the people of Orange county again threaten Col. Fenning, and refuse paying any taxes till an act granting an enormous sum for building a house for the Governor be repealed; so that Governor Tryon has been obliged to draught 2000 men from Mecklenburg and Dobbs counties to overawe them, who are to march from the town of Mecklenburg the 12th instant. Two of their leaders have been secured, but its apprehended they will be released before they can be brought to trial, as the people in general complain loudly of the above mentioned act as a great grievance, as well as of that laying a duty on paper, glass, &c. which will soon drain from them the little specie they have. Their paper currency being mostly sunk, and a poll-tax of eleven shillings proclamation money does not fail to add to the distresses of the country."

Catherine Rathell.

At same place LODGINGS for SIX GENTLEMEN.

N. B. She has on hand a few dozen of large and small felt hats, and some pieces of German and British oznabrigs, which she would be glad to dispose of by wholesale.

THOSE whom it may concern, are desired to take notice, that the mill between King William court house and Claiborne's ferry, is repairing, and impassable by carriages.

EIGHT POUNDS Reward.

RUN away last night from Kingsbury furnace Mine Bank, near Baltimore town, in Baltimore county, Maryland, viz.

WILLIAM HATTON, (alias) Jackson, a convict servant, and by trade a stocking weaver, about 28 or 30 years of age, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, has a down look, and a remarkable way of staring any person in the face that speaks to him, has a scar from the corner of his mouth to his chin, stout made, fresh complexion, and light brown hair: Had on and took with him, a new oznabrigs shirt, striped country cloth jacket, one cotton and fearnought ditto, oznabrigs trowsers, English flats, metal buckles, and a felt hat bound round with black binding.

THOMAS STRINGER, aged about 25 years, 5 feet 6 inches high, short brown hair, has two very remarkable moles on his face, and speaks pretty fast, and much in the country dialect: Had on when he went away, a white Russia drab coat, white double breasted cotton jacket, oznabrigs breeches, white linen shirt, thread stockings, and country made pumps, a striped silk handkerchief, a pretty good felt hat, and sundry other things unknown.

Negro CYRUS, a stout, well made, gruff speaking fellow, had some remarkable lumps on his breast; had on a cotton and fearnought jacket, oznabrigs shirt, short trowsers, Monmouth cap, and a pair of English flats nailed round.

Whoever apprehends the said runaways, so that they may be had again, shall receive Fifty Shillings for each of the two convicts, and Thirty Shillings for the Negro, if taken in the province, and if out of the province, Three Pounds each, for Hatton and Stringer, and Two Pounds for Negro Cyrus, to be paid by

FRANCIS PHILLIPS.

N. B. Stringer went off the 1st of the month, and Hatton and Cyrus together of this date.

Cumberland, Sept. 29, 1768.

RUN away from the subscriber, a Negro man named HARRY, who is about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, a very sensible artful fellow, that speaks quick and plain, understands a little of the carpenter's business, is a good waterman, and has been much used to work on board of ships, at Cumberland town, in the time he belonged to Mr. Richard Littlepage. He has a wife in the neighbourhood of the said town, where I have good reason to believe he has resorted ever since he has been run away, and might be easily apprehended. If he leaves those parts, I am apprehensive he will endeavour to make his escape by water, therefore desire all persons, particularly masters of vessels, not to harbour or entertain the said Negro.

Also about the same time, a young Negro man named TOM, about 6 feet high, has a roguish look, and has lost part of one of his ears. He has been seen in Nansemond and Norfolk counties, and is supposed to be about the Dismal Swamp. Whoever conveys the said runaways to me, shall have 5l. reward for each.

JOHN MAYO.

SEPTEMBER 28, 1768.

WE have now lying at our warehouse at Norfolk (which arrived in the John & Mary, Capt. James M'Kinnie) five bales and two boxes of the following marks and numbers, viz. No. RF 2, No. 4 IW in a piece, with a stroke between the letters and the figure, 1 and 2, No. IW with a crow's foot between the letters, 5, and SE in the centre of two cross triangles, 4 4 24, (bales) IW and IW, the tail of the figure dividing the letters (boxes without numbers.)

We don't know to whom the above goods belong. Any person by making application to John Greenwood at Norfolk, or the Captain on board, lying there, on producing a bill of lading, or if sent from John Elam, a letter from him, will receive such as belong to them.

STORRS & ELLIS.

Loudoun county, Sept. 24, 1768.

THE subscriber's wife having eloped, and otherwise misbehaved, this is therefore to forewarn all persons from trusting her on my account, for I will pay no debts of her contracting after the date hereof.
